

Prevention Model

Aangan’s prevention model for most vulnerable villages/urban bastis/districts facilitates working relationships between most marginalized women and children in hotspots and key child protection officials like police, education officials, child marriage prohibition officer and labor officials. Aangan works across 75 hotspots in 23 districts.

